for each additional insertion of same, $1 00.

MEMPHIS.

The river continued slowly falling yesterday, and there was some activity on the levee. The weather was clear and bright, with a sharp, cold wind.

From New Orleans, for St. Louis, the Jas. Johnsons; for Louisville, the Southerner. From St. Louis, for Memphis, the Southerner. From New Orleans, for Louisville, the J. H. Seen. From New Orleans, for Memphis, the Southerner. From Louisville, the Jas. Johnsons.

The H. W. Bell left for St. Louis last night, with a full load of cotton on board.

The Revera, for White and Little Red Rivers, leaves this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

She brought up with her $4 bales of cotton. She reports the White and Red both falling.

NAPOLEON.—From the Revera, January 30:

"The Revera is in port at New Orleans.

Mr. Brown replied to Mr. Wilson, and defended the President's cause. He was informed that Mr. Wilson had written to him.

Mr. Brown is the Executive session adjoined.

The Revera has brought down James Madison Curtis as a passenger, and a responsible and genial interpretation of his views is to speak, and a general audience will be given to him.

Mr. Brown replied to Mr. Wilson, and defended the President's cause. He was informed that Mr. Wilson had written to him.

Mr. Brown is the Executive session ad-

joined.

Washburn, February 8.—Memphis.—The unsuccessful endeavor and the failure of the White and Red and Black and White. Officers broke reported the French Specie Bank it was made the special order for two weeks past. Douglass submitted a bill in a post haste order to Jacksonport.

The Little Rock True Democrat of the 26th reports eight in the channel of Arkansas water.

SOCIAL.—The Pawtucket Journal says:

"Learn that the United States mail packet executive of White river, was lost.

We did not learn whether the boat would make another trial, or if she would be sent to Kentucky yesterday.

FOR RENT.—A house on Court street, for two months, very cheap. Apply to J. M.

SWAN & Co., or to Dr. Holmes, 170 Main street.

CHAINED.—The eight prisoners who al-tempted to escape from jail on Thursday night, have since been kept heavily ironed. Jailer

Mallory is having the brass they made in the wall strongly repaired.

OUR.—Permit me to assure the world that we have to bear the cost of getting the feet of the bluff, or near the edge shore; in two or three instances, lately, large masses have fallen, which would have been fatal to any one within reach of them.

ABANDONED.—We are under continual obligations to this obliging firm for late papers from New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington and other important points. Aband. & Co. express has acquired a fame as wide as our executive Union, and the courtesy of our executive whom Mr. McAvoy, of the office in this city, and promptness of the service.

MEMPHIS.—Our—This exhibited group of juvenile actors and actresses will play an engagement of only one week at the Gaetey, commencing on Monday next. If half what is said about them by the press of other cities be true, they are the most wonderful prodigies on the stage. We were yesterday visited by Col. Willows, their agent, who informs us that they will probably play here

Monday night.

MEMPHIS.—The success of the ordinance of prohibiting carrying of arms, has appeared to be beyond question.

The cause of homicide, adultery, and dagger which were daily exposed on Front Row, have been withdrawn to less obtrusive places. The city has enjoyed a peaceful time, "estate of harmless incidents of blood and murder." If the Tipper Ordinance is strictly carried out,

Memphis may claim rank with the most peaceable and moral cities in the Union.

GAETE THEATRE.—Last appearance of the troupe make their last appearance this evening on which occasion, will be presented the comic pantomime of the Courtezan, after which the whole company, the male and female women, will be dressed in their costumes, and will be introduced to the audience.

Walter, Captain of the Courtezan, and the girls will be introduced to the audience.

On Friday evening, the girls will be introduced to the audience.
